

Save the date!
Conference: The future of Higher Education
The Netherlands on March 9, 2016

Dear BFUG-member,

We would like to bring to your attention the Dutch Presidency conference on 'the future of higher education' on the 9th of March 2016. Organized in Amsterdam, this conference will showcase best practices and bring together people who work in industry, innovation and education. We will discuss the main challenges and chances for European higher education and will formulate recommendations for the European Commission's review of the modernization agenda for higher education.

The conference is open to all who are interested in the topic. The Presidency aims for a balanced mix of attendees from different European countries and stakeholders. All BFUG members will be automatically invited. They will receive a registration link via e-mail. Other stakeholders from EHEA countries, can indicate their interest to attend by using the pre-registration form, which can be found on this website. Upon pre-registration they will also receive a registration link.

We are looking forward to welcoming you soon in the Netherlands. Further practical information and information on accommodation services will be sent to you after your registration is accepted.

Yours sincerely,

The Dutch Presidency team