PRESS RELEASE

A new round of International Scholarships funded by the State Scholarships Foundation for the academic year 2014-2015 has now opened for non-Greek Nationals to attend a specific course in the Modern Greek Language and Culture in Greece, beginning in the academic year 2014-2015.

The scholarships are offered for no less than eight (8) months mainly at one of the following Greek Universities: Athens University, Thessaloniki University, Ioannina University, Patras University, Crete University. The University, which will hold this course, will be decided by the I.K.Y. after the selection process.

The terms and conditions are set out in the Call for Applicants.

The call for proposals and the application form are available on the I.K.Y. website <http://www.iky.gr/en/scholarships/greek-language>

The closing date for electronic application is 30 May 2014. The remaining documentation required is to be sent by 10 June 2014.
